The New York Health Council offers 15 community assistance programs working with communities, partners, and local government to reduce health disparities and improve the health and well-being of constituent communities.

CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY PRACTICE: Select approaches to use in individual therapy, such as directive, nondirective, and supportive therapy. Conduct crisis assessments and render clinical dispositions. Triage patients and determine priorities based on physical and psychosocial needs.

- Initiate accurate, legible, on-going psychological patient assessments. Formulate diagnosis and problem identification.
- Develop comprehensive care plans using HC policies, procedures, and protocols.
- Assure open and timely communication with patients to ensure therapeutic intervention. Perform symptom analysis and assign appropriate treatment.
- Provide psychotherapy as individual, group, and family interventions are required when clinically indicated/appropriate and when of therapeutic benefit.

PSYCHO-DIAGNOSTIC SERVICES & SUPPORT: Provide a full range of psycho-diagnostic services including assessment and utilization of best practices in implementing psychotherapeutic techniques to provide group and individual capacity restoration to outpatient defendants who have been adjudicated as Incompetent to Proceed (ITP).

- Conduct weekly goal-focused individual psychotherapy sessions and perform crisis interventions.
- Facilitate weekly Moral Reconciliation Therapy group for clients in the Post-Arrest Diversion (PAD) program seeking to divert individuals with serious and persistent mental illness from the criminal justice system and into a structured, outpatient treatment protocol.

ADMINISTRATIVE/PROGRAM MANAGEMENT: Prepare monthly reports by collecting, analyzing, and summarizing information; attend monthly meetings (i.e., System of Care) to present reports to the managing entity. Review monthly progress reports submitted by Case Managers and ensure reports are submitted to the State Attorney's Office and the managing entity.
